More Than a Workplace: WEA Member Benefits Named a 2025 Top Workplace by Wisconsin State Journal

MADISON, WI, April 1, 2025 – For the sixth consecutive year, WEA Member Benefits has been recognized as a Top Workplace by the Wisconsin State Journal, a reflection of its unwavering commitment to its employees and the public-school employees it serves. It's proof that a mission-driven workplace isn't just possible, it's powerful.

"We believe when employees feel valued, respected, and heard, they bring their best selves to work," said Dave Kijek, President and CEO of WEA Member Benefits. "And when that happens, the impact goes far beyond the office walls. It reaches every Wisconsin educator we serve."

With workplaces across the country facing challenges in employee retention, burnout, and engagement, WEA Member Benefits stands out as an organization that gets it right.

"Earning a Top Workplaces award is a badge of honor for companies, especially because it comes authentically from their employees," said Eric Rubino, Energage CEO. "That's something to be proud of. In today's market, leaders must ensure they're allowing employees to have a voice and be heard. That's paramount. Top Workplaces do this, and it pays dividends."

"WEA Member Benefits isn't just a great place to work, it's a place where people feel valued," said Kijek. "And that makes all the difference."
